Jennifer McFadden provides project management support for overall firm management, including supervising and training our office services staff and supporting the firm administrator on diverse special projects. Jennifer also coordinates the firm's marketing strategy such as event planning, social media, maintaining the firm's website, and other related initiatives. With the firm being a California Continuing Legal Education Provider, Jennifer helps coordinate all the programming, scheduling, and reporting to maintain our team's compliance.

With Jennifer having earned her Masters degree in Law, she supported the Transactional Department as a legal secretary, where her attention to detail and passion for the legal field was beneficial. In order to meet the growing firm's needs, Jennifer rose to the opportunity and shifted her focus to firm management. She welcomes the new challenges that come with working with all the firm's attorneys and staff on a daily basis.

Professional and purposeful, Jennifer demonstrates a disciplined work ethic, positive attitude, and willingness to learn. Since joining the firm, Jennifer has consistently proven to be a versatile, reliable contributor to the firm's legal and administrative teams.
