Rebekah Romero brings strong organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills to her role as a legal secretary at Finch, Thornton & Baird, LLP. She provides case management support to her team of construction law and business and commercial litigation attorneys. This includes the reliable execution of filings in state and district courts and the California Courts of Appeal, maintenance of legal calendars, and case tracking through all phases of litigation.

Attention to detail is among Ms. Romero's strengths — and one of the pillars of our core values that contributes to the firm's success.

Rebekah reads, writes, and speaks fluent English and Spanish.
