Maria Cavaliere provides paralegal support to her attorney team in business and commercial transactions, real estate, and wealth preservation. These efforts include assisting with company formation, development, and maintenance, as well as preparation and processing of corporate, trust and estate planning, and other documents.

Maria's work ethic, professional approach, and positive attitude is welcomed at every turn. She consistently demonstrates herself to be a skillful, versatile contributor to the firm's legal team, and generously shares her knowledge with other staff in the transactional department.
