Nathan Nguyen supports the firm's construction law and commercial litigation departments. He works with general contractor, specialty subcontractor, and owner clients on construction and business disputes.

Nathan assists on all aspects of civil litigation, including factual development, legal analysis, discovery, and motion practice. He also conducts damage and liability analyses to position clients for mediation and litigation. Nathan also provides compliance advice for all types of construction related work.

Nathan earned his J.D., cum laude, from the University of San Diego. He served as Lead Articles Editor of the San Diego Law Review and was peer-selected for publication (Vol. 62-3) for his Comment on securities law. He sat on the Moot Court Associate Board and was named Second Best Oralist at the Paul A. McLennon, Sr., Honors Moot Court Tournament. He received the highest grade in two upper-division writing courses, including AI & Innovation, and completed judicial externships with both a U.S. Magistrate Judge and a U.S. District Judge. Nathan graduated summa cum laude from UC San Diego (B.A., Psychology), where he gained experience in the public sector, working for both the federal government and nonprofits.
